Before you begin: Glue can be messy, so cover your work space with newspaper or scrap paper.

- 1 Choose 3 to 4 gem colors that look nice with your headband.
- 2 Think of a color pattern you would like the gems to follow, such as pink-red-pink or blue-yellow-pink. Lay the gems out in that order at the side of your work space.
- 3 Starting at the back of the headband, use a pencil to mark the spot where you want your first gem to be glued.
- 4 Measure a straight line one inch from your first mark, and mark this spot for your second gem. Continue marking spots one inch apart all the way around your headband.
- 5 Now you're ready to begin gluing on gems. Start at the back of the headband. Squeeze a very small drop of glue onto the first mark you made. Set the first gem onto the glue, pressing lightly.
- 6 Continue gluing gems onto all of your marks. When you're finished, let the gems and glue dry for about 15 minutes.

Make every day colorful!
